

Do you want to be a Room Parent?

As school starts you might be thinking:

=> How can I know what's going on in the classroom?

=> How can I get to know my child's teacher better?

=> How can I make a difference for my child?

The best way is to be a Room Parent! Room Parents support their child's teacher and facilitate communication between parents. Room Parents are responsible for organizing:

- Two classroom breakfasts and Chaperones for field trips
- Communication between the PTO and classroom families
- The class treasure for the Zervas Auction in February
- One clean-up day for the classroom
- Scholastic book orders
- Kaleidoscope bag borrowing. A bag filled with books, games, activities, music, and recipes from various cultures designed to strengthen our understanding of others.
- Teacher appreciation items

The PTO's goal is for each class to have four room parents with one of the four being the Head Room Parent. (The Head Room Parent is someone who's previously been a Room Parent.) This structure makes it easier and more fun for all. Since much of the work is done by email even working Moms and Dads make good Room Parents. Room Parent assignments are made on a first-come/first-served basis, so please let us know ASAP if you are interested. The orientation meeting is October 4, 2006. Come join the Room Parent Team!

There are three ways to sign-up to be a Room Parent:
